1. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 3, lines 3-4 "except said double-color LED" is indefinite as to how such does or does not cooperate with a buzzer or horn.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

- a. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Matsuoka in view of Crombez et al.

Matsuoka discloses a functional indicating meter for sensing elements comprising a selecting switch 80 for inputting a switching signal into the control circuit, control circuitry for outputting a signal to apply the chosen sensor data to a meter 20, receiving module 22 connected to plural sensors 10,12 to determine which sensor output is to be displayed, judging whether an output signal is in alarm status if signal is abnormal (col. 7, lines 10-15), displaying sensed data (col. 5, lines 23-27) and driving a pointer with means 22, the means 70 used for switching a meter to display a chosen sensor output, except for use of plural colors to display whether a value is normal or not.

Crombez discloses a parameter gauge indicator device wherein plural colored LEDs are used to indicate whether a displayed parameter is normal or not (col. 4, lines 20-26).

It would have been obvious to use plural colored LEDs as suggested by Crombez in conjunction with a parameter display as disclosed by Matsuoka, in order to make it easier for an observer to recognize when a parameter was out of limits.

Regarding claim 2, Matsuoka teaches display of temperature (col.2, line 54).

Regarding claim 3, Matsuoka teaches providing an alarm via buzzer for an abnormal signal (col. 7, lines 10-15).

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Havel, Roman, Williams, Toffolo, Hoffman, Yokoyama and Simmonds disclose parameter display devices.
